SEVENTEENTH ANNUAL REPORT.

Through the kind and watchful care of our Heavenly Father, and the liberality of generous friends, we have been enabled to sustain our institution another year, and have even added to our number the children of many of our brave soldiers; not, however, without some misgivings as to our ability to retain them in the Home, but trusting in Him who is able to do for us far more than we can ask or think, we have received these children, believing that we shall be assisted in maintaining them, notwithstanding discouraging circumstances and prospects.

There are at present in the Home one hundred children, the number having been increased in consequence of a large donation presented through Mr. Sturgis for that purpose. During the past year fifty children have been admitted, and thirty-three have left the institution. Three of the boys have been placed in Girard College, and the names of a number of others have been enrolled to be admitted in a short time. These boys passed a good examination, and since their admission into the college have been highly commended for their intelligence and good conduct. Four of the girls have been provided with places, and several others are prepared to leave as soon as proper situations can be procured for them.

The children have improved much in their studies as well as in many other respects; the older ones, both boys and girls, have been greatly interested in knitting stockings from yarn presented by Mr. Stewart. The girls, besides making and mending many of their own garments, and assisting in the household work, have furnished some comfortable articles for the wounded soldiers from materials provided by interested friends.

The continued health of the inmates of the Home is a cause for great thankfulness; not one death has occurred during the past year, and the cases of sickness have been but few in proportion to the number, and those of a light character generally. This speaks well for the care of our officers and the skill of our kind physicians, who, with increased and pressing duties, still find time to attend these children.

It is with sincere sorrow that we record the death of our much loved and highly esteemed President, Mrs. Eli K. Price, whose sudden removal, in June last, was a severe blow to this Board of Managers, and they feel that it will be long before her place can be supplied in the Home. She was a warm friend of this institution, and fully expended time, strength, and money for its support. Nothing but illness ever detained her from the Home when she felt her presence was needed there, and her untiring zeal and devotion will long be remembered by those associated with her in the management of "Foster Home." "She rests from her labors, and her works follow her."

The children still enjoy the religious instructions of the Rev. Thomas G. Allen. To him, and to the other gentlemen engaged in this good work, the Managers return their thanks; also to Rev. Mr. Durborrow, whose church is still open to the children.

To Mrs. Preston and the trustees of Preston Retreat, the thanks of the Board are due, for their kindness in continuing to them the use of their building.

We again urge our friends to visit the Home, assuring them, that if they do so, they will not fail to be deeply interested, and convinced of the good it accomplishes.

Donations and subscriptions thankfully received by the Treasurer, or by any of the Managers.
